Osaka, Japan, 7 March 2025 — Patina Osaka, the first Japanese property from Patina Hotels & Resorts, will debut on 1 May 2025, ushering in a new era of transformative luxury in Japan.

Rooted in experiences that inspire growth and celebrate well-being, Patina Osaka invites guests to engage with this philosophy firsthand with Patina Journey, a thoughtfully designed package which embodies the spirit of discovery.

Set within a 20-storey sanctuary, the hotel features 221 rooms and suites that embrace kisetsukan – the Japanese concept of seasonal awareness. Natural wood elements and expansive windows frame views of Osaka Castle Park or Naniwa-no-miya Park, allowing guests to witness the changing seasons from their private retreat.

Building on this connection to nature, Patina Osaka's signature programme of immersive experiences brings together a community of like-minded individuals through a shared appreciation for art, music, design, well-being and conscious living.

The Listening Room by OJAS

Created in collaboration with Brooklyn-based sound pioneer Devon Turnbull (OJAS), The Listening Room by OJAS houses custom-built speakers renowned globally as works of art. The space features curated vinyl collections and cultural texts that have shaped Turnbull's 20-year career. Sunrise sessions and evening soundscapes complement the natural rhythm of the day, while regular events welcome vinyl collectors and musicians to share their selections.

Culinary Experiences

The hotel's culinary offerings flow in harmony with nature's rhythms. At Iñaki, a Basque grill takes centre stage while P72, the signature restaurant, presents conscious cuisine that respects Japan's 72 micro-seasons. Nijiri Tea Lounge invites quiet moments of contemplation with carefully selected regional teas, complemented by the refined ambience of Sonata Lounge & Bar. For those seeking the artistry of Japanese cuisine, Barin offers an intimate teppanyaki experience where each dish tells a story of tradition and craft.

Patina Spa complements a serene 20-metre pool and contemporary gym. Here, innovative therapies merge seamlessly with time-honoured practices – from the revitalising embrace of cryotherapy at subzero temperatures to the gentle restoration of hyperbaric oxygen therapy. Infrared sauna and red-light therapy rooms offer natural pathways to enhanced circulation and cellular renewal, each treatment carefully customised to support deep rest and recovery.
