Osaka, 1 May 2025 – Opening 1 May 2025, Patina Osaka sets a new benchmark for hospitality in Japan, combining transformative luxury with comprehensive wellness and health technology offerings – marking a first in the country's hospitality scene. Rising 20 stories with unobstructed views of the majestic Osaka Castle, this 221-room urban sanctuary houses five distinctive dining venues including signature restaurant P72, as well as The Listening Room by OJAS.

Patina Osaka seamlessly weaves together the worlds of art, design, music, creating a harmonious sanctuary where creative expression meets holistic wellbeing. This integration reflects Patina's philosophy on the thoughtful application of wellness innovations supporting guests' overall wellbeing as they immerse themselves in the range of experiences the hotel has to offer.

"The opening of Patina Osaka marks a significant milestone in our journey to transform luxury hospitality through mindful experiences and creative innovation," says Cristiano Rinaldi, President, Capella Hotel Group. "As our first urban Patina and second destination following the success of Patina Maldives, we are bringing a fresh perspective to Japan's hospitality landscape while honouring the rich cultural narrative of Osaka. Now is an exciting season of growth for Japan, with its vision to increase tourism to over 60 million international visitors by 2030 and Osaka hosting the Kansai World Expo 2025. Patina Osaka Deluxe Suite

Patina Osaka Junior Suite

Situated between two historical treasures—Osaka Castle and Naniwanomiya Park—the 20-storey property was designed to be in harmony with its surroundings through the visionary collaboration of Jun Mitsui & Associates Architects and the masterful interior designers at Strickland. The design celebrates the Japanese concept of kisetsukan (seasonal awareness) while integrating elements from Osaka Castle's architecture—from the water flowing through its moat to the copper adorning its roof—creating a seamless blend of heritage and modernity.

Patina Wellness

Within this thoughtfully-designed property are 221 rooms and suites continuing the kisetsukan theme with natural wood elements and expansive windows that frame mesmerising views of either Osaka Castle Park or Naniwanomiya Park. Each space allows guests to witness Japan's changing seasons from their private sanctuary while honouring both traditional Japanese aesthetics and contemporary comfort.

Pioneering wellness technology amidst natural luxury

Patina Osaka sets itself apart through its comprehensive wellness and health technology offerings in Japan, integrating advanced innovations within its serene sanctuary. The Patina Spa features hyperbaric oxygen and hydrogen therapy, cryotherapy, far infrared sauna heat therapy, LED full body treatment, and wellness technologies that complement traditional treatments — all within a 1,400-square-metre space that provides a holistic wellness experience.

P72 Signature Restaurant

Conscious dining through Japan's micro-seasons

At P72, Patina Osaka's signature restaurant, guests embark on a journey through Japan's 72 micro-seasons with conscious cuisine that celebrates local purveyors and seasonal bounty. The space features a dramatic 52-metre organic installation of 'roots' constructed from reclaimed Osaka wood factory scraps, while an edible botanical garden engages all senses. The restaurant embodies Patina's approach to dining, which emphasises locally-sourced ingredients, sustainable practices, and culinary experiences that highlight the connection between food, people and place.

Creative collaborations with global visionaries

The property showcases collaborations with world-renowned talents, including famed Japanese artist Verdy, who serves as Creative Partner and contributes to an exclusive merchandise collection that celebrates Osaka's vibrant culture. Sound pioneer Devon Turnbull (OJAS) has created The Listening Room by OJAS, an audiophile haven that elevates hi-fidelity sound to high art through custom-built speakers and a curated vinyl collection.

"Our team of dedicated Patina Essentialists embody our Patina spirit and the authentic hospitality traditions that Japan is known for, uniquely introducing fresh perspectives that define the Patina experience."

Within Patina Osaka, the Perpetual Journey unfolds as a pathway to personal growth. This core philosophy guides guests through experiences that elevate consciousness and deepen connections—with the place, with themselves, and with others. Each experience is designed to inspire moments of wonder and reflection, creating opportunities for transformation within the luxury of mindful hospitality. From Design Immersion Tours that reveal architectural narratives to Morning Soundscapes by OJAS that tune your day to pristine audio frequencies, these tailored moments invite a deeper understanding of both Osaka's essence and your own evolving journey.
